Arrived in Opuā

Saturday, 2013-11-23, 17:30, Opuā Marina

We arrived at 16:01 after 6 days 23 hours and 31 minutes at the customs dock of Opuā Marina after a lovely sail through the Bay of islands approach, accompanied by the tall ship Essex (Rob thinks). The customs, immigration and biosecurity people were very friendly and cleared us in in half an hour. Liz and Rachel where also already waiting for us.

Weâ€™re now moored at Opuā Marina where weâ€™ll stay until Monday before sailing down to Auckland where Iâ€™ve reserved a berth at Westhaven Marina pier P (#71 I think). Looking forward to a shower and dinner with our wives.

Glückwunsch zur erfolgreichen "Heimführung" von GudrunV! Für mich ist das lesen deiner Posts schon Abenteuer genug, ich glaub so "Waschmaschinensegeln" wär nix für mich...
